From Recent (Spring/Summer 2020) Online Participants

“This course exceeded all expectations. It should be required for all EMBAs and for everyone that sees themselves ever serving in or supporting the C-Suite in any organization.”
-- CDR G.F., UT-Austin/McCombs, US Navy

“It has been an incredible experience participating in the virtual residency through The Washington Campus. The panel of speakers has been extraordinary. I highly recommend it.”
-- J.C., Rice-Jones; Educational Consultant, Pearson

“The speakers were excellent. I left with refreshed perspective on how we all, both business and government, must work together on public policy. Thank you to The Washington Campus team for innovating and organizing a fantastic online experience for us!”
-- C.D., UNC-CH/Kenan-Flagler; Biopharma Tech Manager, GSK

“A great education in business and public policy! I definitely learned a lot – tremendous insights I otherwise would not have had access to. Will definitely recommend this unique online elective option to my classmates!”
-- A.M., UCLA-Anderson; Wolters Kluwer Enablon

“Fantastic program – a highlight of my MBA experience. The online curriculum was very valuable, providing access to incredibly qualified speakers and an interesting agenda. Definitely would recommend the course to anyone looking for something outside the traditional MBA course load.”
-- J.P., U.Michigan-Ross; Product Development Leadership, Ford

“Great speakers – a fantastic, engaging virtual residency program!”
-- E.G., ASU-Carey; Engineer Officer, USAF

“The program was fantastic. An amazing online agenda with great speakers that made it so we all wanted to join in. Our interactions really drove the conversation of real-life, real-time scenarios, which was great! It was a highlight of my MBA experience.”

“Great program!”
-- A.H., UCLA-Anderson; Director, Enterprise Services, Microsoft
The Washington Campus open-enrollment courses are unique, intensive, residency experiences in Washington, D.C. — for Executive, EMBA, MBA, and other types of graduate and professional students. Courses focus on how specific organizations and industries are affected by public affairs and public policy; how public policy is made and influenced; and how public affairs and public policy must be strategically, effectively, and ethically managed to create profitable and sustainable ‘win-win’ solutions for business, government, and society.

The Washington Campus courses are a distinctively valuable personal and professional development opportunity for both current and future business leaders. Participants learn directly from those who actually make and shape public affairs and public policy: corporate public affairs and government relations executives; leaders of associations, think tanks, and non-profit organizations; lobbyists; media; current and former members of Congress and congressional staff; current and former leaders in the Executive Branch and from independent regulatory agencies; and much more.

The Washington Campus, founded in 1978, is a non-partisan, non-profit 501(c)(3) higher education consortium. The Campus welcomes participants from diverse backgrounds and does not discriminate on the basis of gender, race, orientation, religion, national or ethnic origin, or disability.

Participating Consortium Members
- Arizona State University
- University of California, Berkeley
- University of California, Los Angeles
- Emory University
- University of Florida
- Howard University
- Indiana University
- University of Michigan
- University of New Mexico
- University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
- Northeastern University
- The Ohio State University
- Purdue University
- Rice University
- University of Texas at Austin
- Texas A&M University
- And many other program partners worldwide

Participants from accredited non-consortium schools also are welcome to enroll, but should check with their home institutions before registering in order to receive academic credits.
