

Daniel Guéguen

Chairman

CLAN Public Affairs & European Training Institute (ETI)

E-mail: dg@clanpa.eu dg@e-t-i.be

Studies and diplomas

- Doctorate from the Faculty of Law of Rennes
- Graduated from Sciences-Po-Paris, Economic and financial section
- Scholarship from the Council of Europe

Current functions

- Chairman of CLAN Public Affairs - ESL & Network Group
- Chairman of the European Training Institute (ETI)
- Member of the Advisory Board of ESL & Network Group
- Vice-chairman of EUROPOLITICS formerly EIS
- Associate lecturer at the Université Libre de Bruxelles (ULB) (Master in European Affairs) – Visiting Professor at Georgetown University, Visiting lecturer at Harvard University, the Brookings Institution, École Nationale d'Administration (ENA),...

Career

- 1973: Project Manager at the Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique. In charge of a study on the legal structure of multinational companies in Europe
- 1974-1976: Head of the Legal Service, then Deputy Secretary-General of the Groupe Sablières de la Seine-Béton de Paris (Lafarge Group).
- 1977-1994: Head of Service, Director, then Director General (from 1988) of CEFS, the European Sugar Manufacturers Association
- 1994-1996: Secretary-General of COPA-COGECA, which represents in Brussels the European farmers' unions and their cooperatives
- 1996-2009: Founder and CEO of CLAN Public Affairs and ETI

Publications

- Founder of Editions Apogée, 1991
- Author of 14 books including: A practical guide to the EU labyrinth (translated in 20 languages), Comitology: The Hidden Power of the EU, European Lobbying
- Editorial writer for many newspapers and medias