

are partnering to offer a Washington-based, compressed schedule

12 Credit Graduate Certificate in

Forensic Accounting & Fraud Investigation

September 20-24, 2010

October 11-15, 2010

November 8-12, 2010

December 6-10, 2010

Detecting Fraud...Enforcing Accountability...Solving White Collar Crime

For More Information or to Enroll visit www.washcampus.edu/forensic
Or call The Washington Campus at (202) 234-4446

Enroll in the program that the IRS used to train its employees in best practices for detecting fraud

The four graduate-level courses included in the certificate program are:

ACCT 581 Fraud Investigation	September 20-24, 2010
ACCT 582 Fraud Data Analysis	October 11-15, 2010
ACCT 583 Fraud: Criminology/Legal Issues	November 8-12, 2010
ACCT 584 Advanced Fraud Investigations	December 6-10, 2010

Earn a 12-credit graduate certificate in four intensive weeks of study in Washington, D.C.

Admissions Requirements for the Graduate Certificate:

Applicants must meet minimum coursework, GPA, and graduate admission test requirements. CPAs, lawyers, and those admitted to an accredited graduate program in accounting or to an accredited law school will be automatically admitted. For accountants, prerequisites include principles of financial accounting, intermediate accounting, accounting systems, and auditing. For others, such as those in law enforcement, lawyers, business professionals, psychologists, sociologists, and government accountability and oversight professionals, work experience may be substituted for some or all of the prerequisite courses.

Tuition: $12,000 for the full program

Discounts provided for agencies or organizations enrolling 4 or more students

For More Information or to Enroll visit www.washcampus.edu/forensic
Or call The Washington Campus at (202) 234-4446